Directions: Answer each of the questions which follow after reading the appropriate section in the textbook. If you are not sure what section to read, check your course outline.

Part A

1. Briefly describe the conditions for immigrant Canadians and Native people in the mid 1900s.

2. What were the typical Victorian attitudes and values of the time period?

3. Describe the scientific developments and medical conditions found in the 19th century.

4. Who was Emily Stowe and what was her contribution to Canadian society? Read the editorial found on page 66 to better understand the challenges facing women of that time.

5. How did leisure, travel, and technology change for Victorian Canadians?

6. What obstacles and attitudes stood in the way of Canadian federation? How did Canadians and the British view the idea of Responsible Government in a different way? What was the result?

7. Explain the advantages of confederation. What were Canadian politics like then?

8. What special deals and compromises had to be made in order to achieve confederation?

9. In what ways was The BNA Act different to theat of the American constitution? What groups of Canadians were not represented at the Conferences? What hopes did they have for the future?

10. List and describe any 10 different powers of the Federal and Provincial government: