Contact Mrs. Giesbrecht if you have any questions or would like to apply. Application due date is November 30, 2016.

Student Forms

At the beginning of September several forms were sent home with students for parents/guardians to fill out, sign and return to the school:

- Student Information Verification
- Student Use Agreement
- Outside Media in Schools Consent
- Personal Information Consent
- Earthquake Emergency Direction

The office is missing forms for some students and would appreciate your help in getting the forms returned to the school.

28 Hour Famine

Oak Bay High Community Leadership students participating in the 28-Hour Famine are collecting hygiene products which will be donated to those in need. Students will be collecting donations door to door on the afternoon of November 25th or you can drop off your donations at the school. The students are looking for donations of the following items:

- Socks
- Soap
- Toothpaste
- Gloves
- Feminine Hygiene products
- Toques
- Shampoo
- Toothbrushes
- Toilet Paper

If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Taggart at rtaggart@sd61.bc.ca

Swim Team at Provincial Championships

Congratulations to all members of the Oak Bay Swim Team on a great performance at the BC championships. Special congratulations to our mixed relay team of George Ramsay, Zaya Fehr, Annika Weir and Braeden Copeman on winning the 200 mixed B medley and placing 3rd in the 200 free B mixed event. Braeden also placed 2nd in boys B 50m breaststroke.
