Building Belonging: A Community Conversation on Inclusive Education

Please see the flyer below for any parents interested in a forum discussing Inclusive Education. The dates, time and location are all on the flyer.

The flyer is for an event titled "BUILDING BELONGING: A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION ON INCLUSIVE EDUCATION". It is presented by VCPAC District Parent Advisory Council for SD #61. The event is on November 27, 2025, from 6:45 PM to 8:30 PM at Oak Bay High School. The flyer lists three presenters: Tracy Humphreys, Carolyn Howe, and Sean McCartney. It includes a QR code for sign-up and a list of topics to be discussed, such as inclusive education in BC schools, family perspectives, and teachers' insights. A "SIGN UP" button is also present.

Food & Clothing Drive

Thank you to the families who donated non perishable food items for the Mustard Seed Food Bank in October. The community leadership students have partnered with Our Place to do a warm clothing and sock drive for the month of November. There will be a donation box set up outside the office to take in donations for the duration of the month. We appreciate any and all support.
